

The Code of My Cross

"If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me" (Luke 9:23).

My Call is to be an Ambassador of Christ.

I will conduct my life in a way that will not bring reproach to the Name of Christ, but rather persuade others to be reconciled to God in a winsome way.

My Relationships are the key to my success.

I will daily spend time with God

I will lead my family to do the same and will protect my relationship with them.

I will be held accountable to my brothers and will also challenge them to higher ground.

I will fellowship with the body and look for other men to disciple.

My Obedience is better than sacrifice. I will do both.

My love for Christ is demonstrated by my obedience to live His Word. I will live a life of integrity and discipline. I will be faithful in my giving of time, talents, and resources.

My Study of God's Word will be my daily, lifelong pursuit.

My training is never complete. I will continue to grow.

My Success is to hear, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant
... enter into the joy of the Lord."

This will be my life objective and the guide to all my decisions.

I will not fail, I will not turn back, but with HIS help, I will overcome and I will succeed!
